

The Secret Passage

Once upon a time, in a small village in Asia, there was a girl. This girl was called Amilia and she was 8 years old. Amilia loved exploring her village all by herself because she was once told that the exact village where she lived in was attacked and the people who lived in the village had escaped through a secret passage! Amilia was determined to find the passage. Amilia searched and searched but could never find it because it would only appear when you needed it.

A year later, Amilia's parents had a new baby girl. Amilia's parents called her Emma. Time went by and the baby girl became a toddler, so was old enough to eat food from a plate. Amilia's parents weren't very rich so most of the food went to Emma. Amilia started to get hungry. Then, she remembered the story. She set off straight away to find the passage because she needed something, food. Round the corner of Stimpel Street, something happened that had never happened before. Something appeared but Amilia couldn't even have time to see what it was because it was much too bright for her to open her eyes! A few seconds later, it all came back to normal. Amilia opened her eyes. She was absolutely bewildered! The secret passage had appeared and it was floating in the air and a few steps were leading to it! She ran like she never had before to the passage. Soon Amilia was walking up the steps into the tunnel! However as soon as Amilia was in the tunnel, her village disappeared! Amilia felt happy and worried at the same time! She wouldn't be hungry any more but was not sure to see her family again. She decided to eat first and then try to go back and see her family. Amilia started to walk through the dimly lit tunnel. After a while, she saw the end of the tunnel. Amilia was really excited! The next thing Amilia was feeling was soft, squishy sand. Amilia had arrived on a deserted island! The island had a calm, transparent, shimmering river flowing in and out of mango trees and banana trees. Amilia started collecting all the fruits she could find and ate them with delicacy. When Amilia had finished all the fruits, she wasn't hungry anymore so decided to go back and see her family. Amilia started to walk back through the tunnel and back down the steep stairs. Amilia went all the way up Stimples Street. Then she saw her house. She liked the island but liked her house much more. She ran to her house and told all her story to her parents. Amilia went through the tunnel every day and was never hungry again!

The Secret Passage

460 words